Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on June 21, 2010 has been entered.

Detailed Action

This office action is a response to applicant's communication submitted June 21, 2010 wherein the rejections of record in the previous office action are traversed. This application is a national stage application of PCT/US04/04921, filed February 18, 2004, which claims benefit of provisional application 60/448839, filed February 20, 2003.

Claims 120-123, 125, 126, 128, 130-133, 135, 136, and 138 are pending in this application.

Claims 120-123, 125, 126, 128, 130-133, 135, 136, and 138 as amended are examined on the merits herein.

Reasons for Allowance

Applicant's arguments, submitted June 21, 2010, with respect to the rejection of instant claims 120-123 and 130-133 under 35 USC 103(a) for being obvious over Rossignol et al. in view of Sanghvi et al., have been fully considered and found to be persuasive to remove the rejection as there would be no specific motivation or expectation of success for making the specific claimed compounds recited in the claims. Therefore the rejection is withdrawn.

Applicant's arguments, submitted June 21, 2010, with respect to the rejection of instant claims 125, 126, 128, 135, 136, and 138 under 35 USC 103(a) for being obvious over Rossignol et al. in view of Greene et al., have been fully considered and found to be persuasive to remove the rejection as there would be no specific motivation or expectation of success for making the specific claimed compounds recited in the claims. Therefore the rejection is withdrawn.

Currently claims 120-123, 125, 126, 128, 130-133, 135, 136, and 138 are pending in this application and have been examined on the merits herein. Applicant's arguments submitted June 21, 2010, are seen to be persuasive to remove all rejections of record in the previous office action and place the application in condition for allowance. Reasons for allowance are as follows:

The claimed invention is seen to be adequately described and enabled by the specification as originally filed. Therefore the claims meet the requirements of 35 USC 112.

Furthermore the claims are seen to be novel and non-obvious over the prior art. The prior art does not disclose any of the specific claimed compounds. Although Rossignol et al. (Reference of record in previous action) discloses several synthetic intermediates which have a similar structure to the claims saccharides, modifying the synthetic scheme disclosed by Rossignol et al. in order to arrive at a synthetic scheme that would produce the claimed compounds as intermediates would involve arbitrary modification of the order of attachment and removal of various protecting groups. Firstly, there is no guidance or motivation in the prior art that would lead one of ordinary skill in the art to decide to modify the synthetic scheme of Rossignol et al. in such a way as to arrive at these intermediates as opposed to any other arbitrarily selected synthetic scheme proceeding through other intermediates. Furthermore, as discussed in the declaration of James E. Foy submitted July 2, 2008, any synthetic scheme proceeding through the claimed intermediates would require the omission or early removal of certain protective groups from the intermediates in order to attach the fatty acyl groups at an earlier point in the synthesis. According to MPEP 2144.04(b), omission of an element (in this case the protecting group) with retention of its function (i.e. providing stability at this position of the molecule during other synthetic transformations) is evidence of nonobviousness. For these reasons the claims meet the requirements of 35 USC 102 and 103.

Accordingly, Applicant's arguments submitted June 21, 2010, are sufficient to remove all rejections made in the prior office action as discussed above and to place the application in condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled, "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Eric S. Olson whose telephone number is 571-272-9051. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 8:30-5:00.
